Rosa Bonheur is 58 years old; she has often been paid at the rate of $300 a day for painting.

And now the Paris American Register says that James Gordon Bennett isn't to marry a Bonaparte princess.

William Sprague of Rhode Island, has nothing left of the $12,000,000 inherited from his father.

The late Senator Carpenter of Wisconsin, is to have a monument either at Madison or Milwaukee.

Senator Pendleton of Ohio says that he has had several headaches in trying to understand New York politics.

A Lucky Parson.

S. F. Chronicle.

The Rev. Dr. N. W. Conkling, pastor of the Rutgers Presbyterian Church in New York city, has recently arrived in California to enjoy a season of rest and recreation. His lines seem to have fallen in unusually pleasant places. After a very successful pastorate in Arch Street Church, Philadelphia, he was called, twelve years ago, to the Rutgers Church, where he at once became immensely popular, not only with his own congregation, but with other denominations. A wealthy Episcopalian widow, who became interested in his preaching, has been very bountiful to him and his family. She sent him, his wife and daughter to Europe, paying all the expenses of the trip. On his return he found that she had bought and furnished a mansion for him at a cost of $70,000, and, not content with that, she presented Mrs. Conkling, who is said to be not one bit jealous, $100,000 in Government bonds.

Sales Sold.

New York Sun.

The downfall of the Rev. O. C. Sales was brought about by the fright of Mrs. Brewer when she thought she was dying. He undertook, being her pastor, to prepare her mind for death, but she knew him to be a hypocrite, and declared that his ministrations were worthless for deathbed purposes. Therefore she turned to the attending physician for consolation, and placed in his hands a package of love letters which Sales, though a married man, had written to her. She recovered, and the physician turned the letters over to the officers of the church. They arraigned the pastor privately. He professed penitence, and begged them to "do unto him as they would have others do unto them if caught in a similar way." They decided to retain him as their minister, but the scandal got out, and the congregation forced him to resign.

Wicked Waltzers.

N. Y. sun.

A supper and concert were given during commencement week at the Illinois State University, Bloomington. Waltz music was played and the young couples danced to it. On the following Sunday the Rev. J. W. Webb preached in the Methodist church of the place on the sinfulness of round dancing as he had observed it on that occasion. He characterized it as "wicked, fashionable hugging," and said: "After 2 o'clock at night I saw parties, male and female, under one shawl promenading the streets locked in each other's arms and going into alleys." The dancers could have borne all but this remark with equanimity, but as to it they publish the retort that the preacher spoke in a "foul, false, and unchristian manner."

The Famous Opera Singers.

Annie Louise Carey and Clara Louise Kellogg are beyond question the most famous opera singers of modern times. In fact they have been universally acknowledged to be the leaders of their profession, as well as ladies of large experience and particularly good taste. They have probably traveled more extensively than any ladies on the stage, and, as a consequence, have had excellent opportunities of judging of the merits of different countries and their productions. It is certainly a very great credit to California and the balmy semi-tropical climate of the Pacific, to have had them pronounce Slaven's Yosemite Cologne by far the best they have ever used in any country. For sale by Osburn & Shoemaker Reno, Nevada.

THE PRESIDENT.

The latest bulletins received by the GAZETTE, say that President Garfield is still improving. There are still many days of danger, but hope runs high. We hope that we may soon be able to set all doubts at rest. The President's bravery seems to equal his goodness.

AN UN-WISE POLICY.

There seems to be a general disposition on the part of the press to fix upon Conkling and Arthur, the suspicion, at least, of having been privy to the attempted assassination of Garfield. The best newspapers in the land are against Conkling's recent course. They consider him factious, arrogant and un-American. That, however, is no proper ground for accusing him for the deed of an insane man. The assertion of the Democratic papers that the assassination grew out of the political methods of the Republican party, is entirely frivolous and groundless. We do not in any feature admire or uphold Conkling's dictatorship, but we desire to do him justice as a great American citizen. The charge against Conkling, if true, will bury him beneath a continent of contempt. If false, it will elevate him in proportion to the strength with which it is urged. It would be as well to hold him accountable for the idiot McNamara, as to make him accountable for the act of Guitteau. The poorest weapon to use against Conkling is misrepresentation. In this connection it may prove curious to notice how soon Democratic cotemporaries will recover from their horror at the attempted assassination. Some are already convalescent.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

At the close of the year there were in the United States 100,108 miles of telegraph lines, and during that year 33,153,991 messages were sent. The miles of wire were about 300,000. This does not include the lines used exclusively for railroad purposes. The other countries having the greatest length of lines are as follows: Russia, 56.170] miles; Germany, 41,431: France, 36,970; Austria Hungary, 30,408, Australia, 26,842; Great Britain 23,155; British India 13,209; Turkey, 17,085; and Italy, 15,864.

The papers say there is not a theatre in London that cannot be emptied of a crowded audience in four minutes. During the run of "Colonel Sellers" at the California Theatre, there were several evenings on which it would have been impossible for the audience to have got out of the house in less than half an hour, so large was the attendance and so blocked up were the aisles with chairs and stools—the latter being a flagrant violation of the law. There will be an awful roasting of human flesh in one of our theatres some of these days.

Secretary Blaine says in regard to his reported ill health: "I have had no rheumatism since February. The newspapers alone are responsible for the report that I have suffered from it recently; but I had rather have the rheumatism in the newspapers than in any other organs."

Is it not unfortunate that any lunatic or black hearted murderer has unlimited opportunity to kill the President of the United States? Will the recent attempt result in providing security for the lives of Statesmen? There are other Guitteaus in America.

Our Government credit is now virtually on the basis of 3 per cent., since a 3½ per cent. bond, which can be paid at any time, is certainly worth no more than a 3 per cent. bond which cannot be paid for fifteen or twenty-five years.

The dispatch on the day of President Garfield's attempted assassination, which assured a sorrowing people that the stock market had not been affected was simply disgusting. Money and men. Bullion and blood.

It is now ascertained as a scientific fact that the comet is leaving the earth at the rate of 800,000 miles a day, and that its tail is 4,000,000 miles in length. If anybody wants to discover it again they must hurry.

The United States has some slavery, it appears, up in Alaska. If it is worth while to purchase that country, it might pay to begin to civilize it a little.—Philadelphia Ledger.

New York capitalists are out in an associated press dispatch saying that they will prevent any panic in the stock market. They must be long on the market.

Pietro Roberti informs the Eureka Leader yesterday morning about 10 o'clock he passed Wm. Lamb's cabin, about thirty miles from Eureka, on the eastern side of the valley, and getting no response to his knock, opened the door of the cabin and found Lamb sitting on a chair with a double barreled shotgun between his legs and his head nearly blown off.

Samuel Collyer, a miner who formerly worked in various Gold Hill mines, shot James Riddile, an employe of the Kentuck in the arm, in front of the Eldorado saloon, North C street, Virginia, about 1 o'clock Monday morning. The parties had a quarrel last winter, in which Collyer was slightly cut in the shoulder.

The News says: A streak of blood was observed Sunday morning on main street, Gold Hill, commencing in front of the Catholic Church and continuing until the cross street leading to the school-house was reached—about 200 feet. —The path master is notified by a big stout granger that the waste water that crosses the Peavine road about three-quarters of a mile from town is rendering the road impassable, and if it is not fixed there will be a visitation of providence at his house.

As Usual.

For the past four days there has been a rush at all of Reno's leading hotels. A GAZETTE reporter got lost in the rush and bustle, about the Depot and Arcade. The polite waiters and gentlemanly clerks at the Arcade, however, seemed more than equal to the occasion. Charles Sergeant behind the bar mixed anything, from a cocktail to a julep at a second's notice and Hank Rhodes, the popular manager, was in and out and everywhere at the same time. Visitors are sure of good treatment at the Arcade.

The Breeds Improving.

Prof. Wm. Lee, the veterinary surgeon, has returned from Virginia. He goes home by way of Fort Bidwell. His visit here has been both pleasant and profitable to him. His travels extend over a stretch of four thousand miles and he says the quality of the herds both of horses and cattle are improving all over the Pacific Coast. It has become the custom among intelligent stock-men to spay the old breed of knotty headed calves and colts, and that not only prevents their reproducing their own scrubby kind, but they improve in flesh and stand the winters better. The use of higher grades of males is raising the standard and while the number may be less than it has been, the wealth in dollars and cents is steadily increasing.

Sierra Valley.

The grain crop about Loyalton promises to be larger than at any time during fifteen years. It is believed that 125,000 bushels will be harvested in the region immediately around Loyalton and Randolph. The inhabitants turned out recently and fought the hoppers face to face. The pest was making for the grain fields, when the frightened ranchers assembled on the edge of the grain land, and with burning straw, sticks, stones, rags and a large ditch succeeded in repelling the invaders. The GAZETTE'S informant says that in the absence of frost on Saturday night last the crop will be excellent.

The Coming Lecture.

There will no doubt be a large attendance at the lecture on "Capital and Labor" to be delivered in Reno on Tuesday, July 12th. Mayor Kalloch is an attraction himself, even if he did not utter a word. Aside from his public career, which has been very sensational, he has undoubted ability, and this has been the power which sustained him through many a trying ordeal. By reason of his career Kalloch is known all over the Union, and his fluent tongue and pen seems to have brought him out at the top of the heap.

A Sheep Herder's Song.

A private letter from Wells Drury to Dan De Quille is to the effect that he is having a very pleasant time up in Oregon, his native State. He is right at home with his brother web-feet, as he speaks Chenook as well as the old boss Chenook himself. He writes that he found the comet, so far as Oregon is concerned. Up there the heavenly visitant is supposed to mean that there will be a small run of salmon next year.

At Half Price

For a few days I will now make the best enameled cabinet photographs for $4 50 per dozen. Remember the place—San Francisco gallery, just below Odd Fellows' building.

G. L. EASTMAN.

WASN'T READY

A Lawyer is Surprised by the Tooting of Gabriel's Cornet.

There is a lawyer in Reno who is very gradual in his movements. He never surprises any body by the celerity of his motions, and is entirely non-sensational. One night, recently, he was slumbering peacefully by the side of the partner of his joys and sorrows, receipts and expenditures, when it chanced that the Reno Brass Band passed by on a serenading tour. The weary barrister began to dream instantly and imagined that he heard the tooting of Gabriel's horn. As usual he was unprepared to move.

"Your Honor," said he, rising and facing his wife, "I shall move for a continuance on the ground of surprise incident to the introduction of new testimony which is at variance with the pleadings in this case. It would be unfair to my client to proceed as the case now shapes itself, and we therefore ask ten days in which to amend."

Railroad Notes.

The great northern highway is pushing forward at a rapid rate. Col. Moore is now in the East, but he made all necessary arrangements for the prosecution of work during his absence. The graders are fast nearing the end of the tenth mile. The Nevada and Oregon Railroad is an assured addition to the facilities of Reno and her northern neighbors.

BODIE AND MONO.

Charles Gilchrist was in Reno last night and left for Bodie this morning. The Bodie and Mono Railway is approaching completion. It will be only six weeks before track laying will commence. The company's sawmill is nearly ready for work and will immediately commence sawing ties for this road. Mark Parish is now domiciled in the Bodie region.

Mountain Resorts.

E. J. Baldwin of San Francisco, has rebuilt the Tallac House at the north end of Lake Tahoe, and it is open for the public. Sharp Brothers of Carson are in charge, and parties who have been there say they have a beautiful place. It is beautifully located on the southern and sheltered side of Lake Tahoe, near Emerald Bay Soda Springs, Fallen leaf and Cascade lakes. Magnificent scenery, shady groves, grassy meadows, abounding in wild strawberries. Broad verandas encircle the house; Chinese lanterns adorn the groves; swings, croquet, lawn tennis and archery grounds; fine drives through the valleys; good trout fishing; billiard tables, pianoes and a a dance hall are provided for guests.

Commissioners.

At their meeting on July 4th the Commissioners transacted the following business in addition to what the GAZETTE has already published:

Relief to the amount of $5 was voted to Mrs. M. Wightman.

The County Assessor was allowed two deputies for fifteen days longer time.

The Board counted the money in the treasury and found it to correspond with the amount reported by the Auditor and Treasurer.

Adjourned until Monday, August 1st.

In a New Field.

Charles L. Queen, Esq., went to San Francisco on Saturday last to remain for an indefinite period. Mr. Queen was admitted to the bar honorably in this State, before attaining his majority. He is a young man of much promise and ability. He will practice his profession in another field and the GAZETTE wishes him the fullest measure of success.

Going Home.

Maurice Prichard, M. D., of Loyalton, left Reno for his home to-day. Dr. Prichard has been on the Comstock for some days and is now called home by professional duties. The Dr. is familiar with the use of the pen as well as dissecting knife.

Vacation.

Rev. W. R. Jenvey and family leave Reno this evening for Sacramento and San Francisco. He will be absent about two weeks and thinks he has possibly earned a vacation of that length, which he will spend among the grainfields and vine-clad hills of California.

Advertising Tells.

E. R. Smith drove down to Reno not long ago, and Bob Meacham drove the team back. Smith missed his overcoat and advertised for it in the GAZETTE. When he got home he found it in the buggy. This shows the value of advertising.

BY TELEGRAPH.

BLAINE BULLETS.

A Man Looking for the Secretary with A Revolver.

WASHINGTON, July 5.

A man was arrested this morning on Pennsylvania Avenue who said he had come to Washington to kill Blaine.

ANOTHER CRAZY BRUTE.

Later—3 P. M.—The man who was looking for Blaine was armed with a revolver. His actions were those of a crazy man. When taken to the police station he was unable to give his name.

Daniel McNamara, of Philadelphia, walked into the police headquarters and said he had a claim against the Government. He had never been given a hearing and proposed to shoot Secretary Blaine. He was sent to the insane asylum.

Guitteau Suggests a Cabinet.

WASHINGTON, July 5.

Among the papers taken from Guitteau yesterday was a letter to Vice-President Arthur, saying that he had assassinated the President, and by this act he (Arthur) had been made President of the United States. The letter then went on to recommend the following reconstruction of the Cabinet: Conkling, Secretary of State; Levi P. Morton, Secretary of the Treasury; John A. Logan, Secretary of War; Emory A. Storrs, Attorney-General. James might stay, as he is doing well, and as to the Navy and Interior Departments, they did not amount to much, and might be left as they are.

He Wished Garfield Would Die.

MARSHALLTOWN, IOWA, July 5.

A laborer on a railroad was killed by a companion for hoping that Garfield would die.

The Morning Bulletin

Special to the GAZETTE.

WASHINGTON, July 6, 8:30 A. M.

The President passed almost a comfortable night and has slept well. His condition has remained throughout as favorable as when the last bulletin was issued. His pulse is becoming less—now 98, temperature 93, respiration 23. Signed D. W. Bliss and three other physicians.

The News Sent to London.

Special to the Gazette.

WASHINGTON, July 6, 11 A. M.

Blaine cables to Lowell, our Minister at London, England. The President passed a very comfortable night, for the first time since he was wounded. His pulse this morning was below 100. His physicians feel fresh encouragement, but are intensely anxious for trying days yet to come.

The Latest Official Bulletin

Special to the Gazette.

WASHINGTON, July 6.

Executive Mansion, 12:30 P. M.—The President remains quite as comfortable as at the date of last bulletin. He takes his nourishment well. Pulse, 100; temperature, 99.97; respiration 23.

(Signed): D. W. BLISS,
J. K. BARNES,
J. J. WOODWARD,
ROBT. REYBURN.

Executive Mansion, 12:55 P. M.—A slight rise has occurred in pulse of the President since the official bulletin of 8:30 A. M., caused by changing of the bed and movement of the patient's body, which it necessitated. His symptoms are regarded as very favorable.

New York Physicians on the President's Syptoms.

Special to the Gazette.

NEW YORK, July 6.

Physicians here say that medical men believe the symptoms demonstrate that no vital part has been wounded. If there had been the temperature would have fluctuated and risen higher. They believe the bullet turned upward and lodged in the dense tissues of the spinal column. This would also account for the pain which the President has suffered.

The Good News Confirmed.

EXECUTIVE MANSION, July 6.

The Presidents symptoms continue favorable. All reports to the contrary are unfounded.

Details of the President's Condition.

Special to the Gazette.

WASHINGTON, July 6.

Every condition remains favorable and some progress has been made in cooling the President's room, and later experiments will, it is believed; wholly overcome the effects of the heat which still prevails, although a stiff breeze has sprung up modifying it somewhat. The President is better than at any time yet, and hope is now almost exuberant.

An Organization to Lynch Guitteau in Case the President Dies.

CHICAGO, July 6.

An Inter Ocean Washington special says: It is reported that an organization of 600 negroes has been formed here to break into the jail and lynch Guitteau if the President dies.

A Famishing Landlord.

They say that every available vehicle in Virginia City was at Steamboat on July 4th. Carson was given the "grand go-by," and it seems that the Comstockers did not treat their Carson cousins fairly. Moeller was literally eaten out of house and home, and and telegraphed Knust for reinforcements.

At Port Huron, Michigan, Saturday, Bostford's elevator, with 25,000 bushels of corn, was burned. Loss, $40,000, insurance, $35,000.

At the Philadelphia Mint the coinage for the year ended Thursday was 55,000 pieces, valued at $59,340,000, of which $4,980,000 was in gold.

Advices from Buenos Ayres of the 5th Ultimo say: Ex-President La Torre has invaded Uruguay, and Col. Santer, Minister of War, is marching against him.

A passenger train on the Chicago and Eastern Illinois Railway collided with the Grand Trunk freight near Kensington, Ill., Thursday night. Nineteen persons were injured.

Colonel Obergon, commissioned to investigate the cause of the Morelos Railway accident, Mexico, declares the sole cause of the disaster was the bad construction of the bridge.

The assassins of Maurice Healy, Superintendent of the Dunbar Furnace Company, Greensburg, Penn., are writing to his friends that a like fate will be theirs if they attempt to discover the perpetrators.

Why a Churchman Approves the Revision.

In the course of a sermon on the New Testament recently, the Rev. R. Heber Newton of the Anthon Memorial Protestant Episcopal Church said that the changes led people to judge the text so much more from an ethical and spiritual than from a dogmatic point that many of the stern old churchmen must feel uncomfortable. "With a fidelity to facts which must be distasteful to high churchmen," said the preacher, "the revisers substitute 'overseer' for 'bishop,' a word used in the King James version of the Psalms, written before the Christian church existed." The idea of future punishment, Mr. Newton said, had been softened in the revision and the dramatic and scenic discription of the last judgment had been greatly softened. Many changes not, as usual, indicated on the margin, favored the subordination of Christ to God. He regretted that several of the bold but wise changes urged by the American revisers had not been adopted, more especially the use of the word "demon" for "devil," in the phrase "possessed by devils." Mr. Newton considered the revision a benefit, because, also, some of the verbal changes are such as to prevent people from picking out short sentences and hanging tremendous dogmas on to them.

Striking Oil in Colorado.

Gunnison News.

It has been well known for some time that this section of State was rich in anthracite oil. Oil was yesterday struck on Smith's ranch near Mount Carbon. Several wells have been discovered which when touched with a match ignited and blazed up to a great height. From a comparison of the ground upon which the wells were discovered with much of the surrounding land there is every reason to believe that oil will be discovered in very large quantities. And so another element of wealth is introduced into this marvelous State of Colorado.

Three Shepherds to One Flock.

Newbern Nutshell.

Three colored preachers were filling a pulpit in this city on Sunday last, each claiming "the floor." However, a Rev. Shade Gates held his claim good "in spite of all odds," and a collection was taken up, the money being placed in his valise, which was inside the pulpit. While he was addressing the congregation the valise was removed and the money taken from it, whereupon he has had the other two ministers cited to appear for larceny, while they got out a warrant against him for disturbing a religious congregation.

A Word for Short Women.

N. Y. Herald.

The feelings of the short lady who looks at the fashion plates in the journals and in the stores must frequently be at ebb tide. Did anybody ever see a fashion plate that was not entirely inhabited by very tall ladies? Must the chubby lady forever choose her pattern from the half-dozen lengths of fish-poles, elegantly draped, that adorn the pictures in fashion papers?
